THE OFFER FRAMEWORK: Package Yourself for US-Funded Startups

technical skills. This framework teaches the THREE TRACKS that actually get offers:

- What you can build
- What you can do in front of hiring managers
- How you package yourself so NOT hiring you feels like a risk

Exercises transforming you from "another applicant" to "the obvious choice" for US-funded startups.

• Define your specific target market

• What do THEY want (not you)?

• Formula determining your value

• Why don't they hire you?

• Convert friction to deliverables

• How they get you
